

ROAD WISE

Train-the-Trainer Course

HOST: SANDY POLICE DEPARTMENT

LOCATION: Sandy Police Department

10000 S. Centennial Parkway, Sandy, UT 84070

DATE: January 10--11, 2019 • 8:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.

The dangers in and around patrol units are often minimized or forgotten by officers as their careers progress. Each year, however, thousands of officers are injured or killed while conducting what they perceive to be “routine” patrol operations. Road Wise Train-the-Trainer offers a realistic and honest look at the hazards officers face on a daily basis. This two-day course will assist agencies in implementing a culture change and a positive training environment—two necessities which guarantee improved safety during vehicle and patrol operations. Road Wise provides the materials needed to help keep agencies on the leading edge of contemporary training techniques related to operations on the road.

Course topics include:

- Implementing Culture Change
- The Officers Involved: Case Studies
- Tactical Tradeoffs
- Vehicle-Related Deaths
- Police-Related Distractions
- Personal Injury Consequences
- Reminder: The 7-Step Approach
- Dangers in & Around Patrol Units
- Officer Ambushes
- The Realities of High-Stress Driving
- Intersection Clearing & Squad Positioning
- Vehicle Operation Training Curriculum
